Lisa woke up early. Today was her first day at school. She was nervous but also excited. She quickly ate breakfast and put on her new uniform. Her mom gave her a big hug and said, "You will do great!" When Lisa arrived at school, she saw many kids in the big playground. Some were talking and some were playing. She wished she could make new friends. The bell rang, and the teacher, Ms. Jones, guided the new students inside. "Welcome to first grade!" she said with a warm smile. The classroom was bright and colorful. There were drawings on the walls and books on the shelves. Lisa found a seat next to a girl named Emily. They started talking and discovered they both loved animals. Throughout the day, they learned new things and played games. During lunch, Lisa shared her sandwich with Emily, and Emily shared her cookies. By the end of the day, Lisa felt happy. She had a new friend and was excited to come back tomorrow. When she got home, her mom asked, "How was your first day?" Lisa smiled and replied, "It was amazing! I can't wait for tomorrow."
